You're Invited...

*To Join The Hartford's
Summer Actuarial Intern
Program*

The Hartford Financial Services Group offers one of the top property and casualty intern programs in the nation, designed specifically to prepare you for a challenging and rewarding career at The Hartford.

You and your 20 fellow interns will become part of a highly respected actuarial community. Undertake challenging and exciting assignments while being evaluated on your technical, communication and leadership skills. This 11-week summer program is competitive in every way, giving you the advantage of working for a leading and respected Fortune 500 insurance and financial services company.

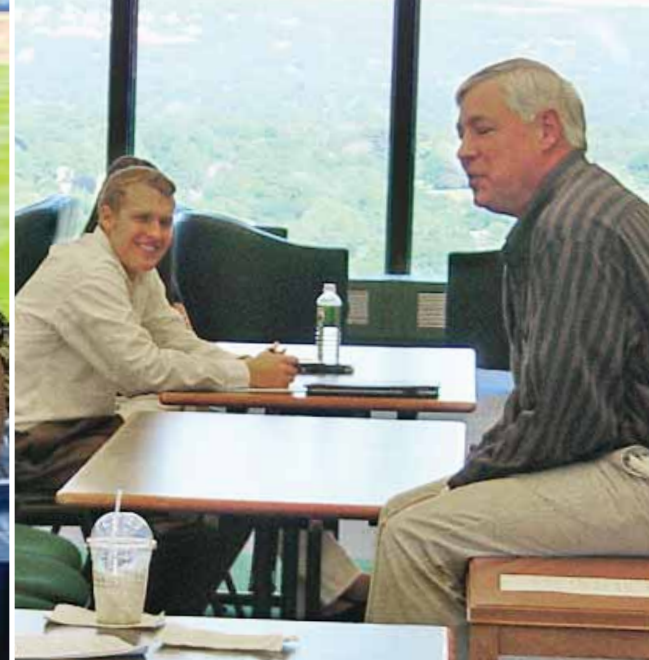

Learn the Diversity of the Insurance Business

You will have the opportunity to learn about the property and casualty insurance industry at one of the nation's oldest, largest, and most trusted financial institutions. Over the course of the summer, interns will learn about the many actuarial roles that The Hartford has to offer. Department presentations amplify this experience to acquaint interns with all the units of business actuaries work in, both traditional and non-traditional. Interns also participate in roundtable discussions with top executives. Past speakers have included CFO Michael Dury and Chief Actuary Tom Johnston.

If you have a passion for problem solving, being challenged intellectually and applying your analytical skills, look to The Hartford. We want the best – and so do you.

Work Experience

Before initial internship assignments are made, departments requesting an intern must present a tailored work agenda with performance objectives. This ensures that your work will be valuable, both to you and to The Hartford. Interns join teams in different departments, including commercial lines pricing, personal lines pricing, corporate reserving, research, claim actuarial, runoff, financial consulting, and several others, in both the personal lines office in Southington and the home office in downtown Hartford.

Career Development

In addition to the internship program, The Hartford offers a variety of training programs designed to help develop personal finance, computer, and career skills. Interns can earn an Introduction to Insurance certification from the Insurance Institute of

“There are many advantages to living in a city such as Hartford. There is always something available for you to do, whether you want to see a concert, go to a sporting event, or enjoy the nightlife. It has all the benefits of a big city without being overwhelming. If you can’t find it in Hartford, New York and Boston are just a short trip away.”

Exam Support

The Hartford recognizes the importance of passing exams by providing interns with a study manual of their choice as well as incentives for successfully passing exams.

Qualifications

Technical and analytical skills, combined with leadership and communication abilities, are ideal qualities of interns at The Hartford. While a minimum of one exam is required for an internship, past interns have been both experienced and beginners to the business environment.

Connecticut and the City of Hartford

Connecticut provides a unique blend of outdoor adventure and city sophistication. You can enjoy hiking, canoeing, and local parks, while the many restaurants, pubs, and dance clubs situated downtown provide for an active nightlife. With Massachusetts, New York, and Rhode Island nearby, interns also have numerous opportunities at their fingertips to sightsee, go to a Broadway show or a museum, and explore the coastline.

Housing

Enjoy living in luxurious, fully furnished corporate housing in downtown Hartford – right across from Hartford’s Bushnell Park. You and your roommates can workout, play sports, shoot pool, and even walk to work from this convenient location.

“It was a great opportunity to be able to work closely with full-time actuaries. Even as an intern, you are exposed to many actuarial concepts through the projects that are assigned to you, and eventually you begin to see how your work fits into the whole picture.”

Unforgettable Events

Events are planned that are a great way to meet other members of the actuarial community. You can enjoy events like:

- Whitewater rafting and team building
- Frequent Blues Fest concerts
- Actuarial picnic and department picnics
- Mini golf and bowling
- Yankees game hospitality suites
